(part 1)

All Jack and his Ma have on their shelves are a smelly sock, an old apple core and a piece of cheese.

What other yucky things might they have found on the shelves?

Draw your own shelves and add your yucky ideas. Can you write a sentence to describe each item? Remember to add adjectives to describe each of the nouns. For example:
The furry, green carrot smelt disgusting!

(parts 6-8)

Write your own instructions of how to plant and grow a bean.

Here are some words you could use in your instructions

|  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
| first    nextnow    thenafter that    lastly | Soil    beanwater    compostsunlight    warm | should    couldmust    neveralways |

Design your own Magic Bean.

Can you design and create your own Magic Bean? Perhaps you could bake and decorate a cake to represent your bean. Alternatively, you could use paper mache or play doh.

Think about the magical way the strange beans grew into a gigantic beanstalk. Can you create music to represent this mysterious event?
