

Hello Discovery class,

This is your next challenge! Can you write me a poem or a story with words that contain our sounds of the week, ay, ea and oy. It can be about anything you like, so please get creative. I know what amazing writers you are, so please remember your beautiful handwriting and full stops and capital letters. Let's get writing!

I can't wait to see what you have written when I see you next,

Have fun!

Miss Orchard
